Vancouver, British Columbia – Auramex Resource Corp. (the “Company” or “Auramex”) (TSX.V: AUX) announces the appointment of Richard Savage to the Board of Directors and grants incentive stock options.

Lawrence Roulston, President and CEO commented: *“Following a highly successful career in capital markets, Richard has transitioned to the corporate world. His company – Crystal Lake Mining, in a remarkably short period of time has become a leading explorer in the Eskay Camp of the BC’s Golden Triangle. Richard Savage began his career as an Investment Advisor at Yorkton Securities (which became Richardson GMP) in 1988 and remained there 28 years. Richard was consistently one of the top producing advisors. Yorkton was one of the leading mining and technology investment firms in Canada. Richard believes in giving back to the community and served on Macquarie Group Foundation’s Board of Directors from 2009 to 2012. In addition, he is a current Director (7 years) of The Gordon and Marion Smith Foundation, which supports and encourages community engagement in the arts.

Richard Savage commented: “I look forward to helping Auramex add value to the extensive property it has amassed in this highly prospective region. The company has a highly experienced geological team that is on track to unlock the value of its multiple high-potential targets.”
